Consultancy

- 2023 I. Atav, Topic: Economic Structure and Trade, Commerce of Northwest Pisidia in the Roman Imperial Period
PhD thesis, 1st supervisor F. Özcan, Süleyman Demirel University

TEACHING EXPERIENCES

Bilkent University Ankara

- WS 23/24 Ways of Seeing: Approaches to Art and Architectural History (Lecture)
Contextualizing art and its development from prehistory until today
Archaeological Illustration (Lecture)
Technical pencil drawings of pottery, glass, terracotta and metal objects, digitisation and preparation for publication in InkScape

Ruhr University Bochum

- SS 2023 ABC of the Digital Archaeology (Seminary)
'How to' Inkscape, GIMP, Access and QGIS in Archaeology
Ancient Landscapes Visualised and Analysed with GIS (Exercise)
Introduction to digital cartography with QGIS, cartographic principles and spatial analysis
- WS 22/23 Methods of Quantification and Statistics in Archaeology (Exercise)
Imperial Cities in Asia Minor (Main Seminary)
- SS 2022 DigiAttica 2.0: Analytical Approaches to a Digital Repository (practical exercise, 1 day/week throughout semester)
Main topics: Data Science, QGIS, ArcGISPro, AutoCAD, AutoCAD 3D, CAD/GIS-connection, R, Database Management at the example of the digital archive of Attica
DigiAttica 2.0: Analytical Approaches to a Digital Repository
(Seminary to the practical exercise)

- ‘How to’ Access, QGIS, ArcMap Pro, AutoCAD Map 3D
Archaeological Documentation in the 20th and 21st century: from Paper and Pencil to Digital Datasets (Seminary)
Combination of theory and practise for the development of the archaeological documentation; practical part includes work with Total Station, GNSS and Drone and the processing of the collected data with Drone2Map, AutoCAD Map 3D und ArcGIS Pro
- WS 21/22 „Frogs round the Pond“: The Mediterranean from the Perspective of Archaeological Surveys (Seminary)
Archaeological surveys round Mediterranean with the main Focus on the applied methods and theories of the survey, techniques and results, discussion about the comparability of the data from diverse surveys
- WS 21/22 Ancient Landscapes Visualised and Analysed with GIS (Exercise)
Introduction to digital cartography with ESRI ArcGIS Pro, cartographic principles and spatial analysis
- SS 2021 Attica-Archive 2.0: Interacting of a Dust Catcher (practical exercise, 1 day/week throughout semester)
Structured digitising of archival data from Attica archive (Diaries, Maps, Plans, Drawings, Diapositives and Photos) and processing of the digitised data with raster- und vector-based graphic editors. Basics of data formats, development of relational database connected with GIS (Access/PostgreSQL/QGIS).
Data Science und Archival Data (Seminary to the practical exercise)
‘How to’ Inkscape, GIMP, Access, QGIS
Specialisation Classical Archaeology (Main Seminary)
Main topics of classical archaeology discussed and examined
- WS 20/21 Applied analyses of ancient landscapes and distribution of plant resources with GIS (Exercise)
Spatial analyses with a focus on plant raw materials in cooperation with archaeobotanist Dr. Nicole Boenke
Ancient Bulgaria (Main Seminary)
Main topics of Thracian Archaeology and main centres with Focus on the Roman period
Ancient Technologies (Main Seminary)
- SS 2020 Methods of Digital Archaeology (Exercise)
Practical acquisition of open source software that can be used in the digital processing of archaeological data (Inkscape – pottery and other finds, GIMP – photos, Adobe Bridge – management of the images, QGIS – georeferenced data documentation)
Field school Pottery Processing in Nora, Sardinia (Practical Exercise)
Due to the pandemic conducted in Collection of Ancient Pottery of the Institute Main focus: processing of ceramic finds (drawing, photographing, macroscopic analysis, creation and maintenance of a find database in Access)
Pottery Processing in Nora, Sardinia (Seminary connected with the practical exercise)
Due to the pandemic the preparatory exercises for drawing etc. replaced with the digital post-processing of the find documentation (Inkscape - re-drawing, GIMP - find photos, Access - handling a database)

- WS 19/20 Read, Understand and Create: Maps in Archaeology (Exercise)
History of mapping, early cartographic works, independent creation of maps in ArcMap
Ancient Roads and Routes, Communication and Traffic (Main Seminary)
About the variety of meanings of roads and paths in antiquity, including a small practical exercise on the Least Coast Path Analysis with ArcMap
GIS in Archaeology (Exercise)
Introduction to ESRI ArcMap, creation of spatial data, basic spatial analyses
- SS 2019 Introduction to Digital Archaeology (Seminary)
Core methods of digital archaeology
Survey in Archaeology from A to Z (Seminary)
Introduction to the history, methods and analysis options of archaeological field surveys with practical mini-exercises on field documentation and field walking
- WS 18/19 Applied Digital Archaeology: Case Study Rome
Core methods of digital archaeology discussed using the case study of Rome
GIS in Archaeology I (Exercise)
Introduction to ESRI ArcMap, creation of spatial data, basic spatial analyses
- SS 2018 Introduction to Digital Archaeology (Seminary)
Core methods of digital archaeology
Databases in Humanities (Exercise)
Combination of theory (data structure and sustainability of data) and practice (creation of own database in Access)
- WS 17/18 Introduction to Digital Archaeology (Seminary)
Core methods of digital archaeology
Databases in Humanities (Exercise)
Combination of theory (data structure and sustainability of data) and practice (creation of own database in Access)
- TRAINING EXCAVATIONS & SURVEYS, SUMMER & WINTER SCHOOLS
- WS 2023/2024 Field School on Systematic Urban Survey and Pottery Processing, Parlassan
Field work undertaken during four weekends in Oct/Nov 2023, processing of finds twice a week at the premises of the Department of Archaeology in Bilkent
5 students in the field, 8 students at the department (extension of the drawing course for interested students)
Position: field director and finds processing director
Cooperation: L. Zavagno (historian and director of the project)
- 11/2022 & 06/2023 Field School on Pottery Processing from Konjuh, North Macedonia
3 weeks, 4 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: scientist and lecturer
Cooperation: D. Donev, E. Bonato (petrographic analysis)
- 07 – 08/2022 & 07/2023 field school of digital archaeology in the framework of the excavation project ‘Der Osthafen von Selinunt – Funktionsbereiche einer antiken Hafenzone’, Sicily/Italy (paperless documentation of the excavation, orthophotos, documentation with drone, 3D reconstruction, SfM, modelling of the terrain)

- 6 weeks, 4 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: scientist and lecturer
- SS 2022 Digitising of the Attica archive (DigiAttica 1.0), Institute of Archaeological Sciences at the Ruhr University Bochum
During semester, once a week, 12 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: project management
Cooperation: H. Lohmann (Attica archive)
- 09/2021 Digitising with AutoCAD Map3D & GNSS in the Field, (Paestum, Italy)
4 weeks, 5 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: scientist and lecturer
- SS 2021 Digitising of the Attica archive (DigiAttica 1.0), Institute of Archaeological Sciences at the Ruhr University Bochum
During semester, once a week, 12 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: project management
Cooperation: H. Lohmann (Attica archive)
- 10/2020 Pottery Processing in the Collection of the Ruhr University Bochum
4 weeks, 10 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: co-leadership, project management, lecturer
Co-leadership: B. Morstadt
- 2018 / 2019, 2022 Systematic Survey (Sant'Antioco, Sardinia/Italy)
3 Campaigns, together 10 weeks, 5-10 students (Ruhr University Bochum)
Position: Survey manager and lecturer
Project management: C. von Rügen
- 2017 / 2018 Selective Systematic Survey and Digital Paperless Field Documentation of Burial Mounds (SO Bulgaria)
2 Campaigns, 3 weeks each, 6 students (University of New South Wales, Australia)
Position: Project management, lecturer, team leader
Cooperation: A. Sobotkova
- 2014 – 2017 Excavation, Survey and Finds Processing (Yurta – Stroyno, Bulgaria)
4 Campaigns, each 6 weeks, 9–10 students (Charles University Prague)
Position: Co-leadership, project management, lecturer, team leader
Co-leadership: P. Tuslova
- 2014 / 2015 Urban Survey (Miletus, Turkey)
2 campaigns, each 4 weeks, 8 students
Position: lecturer, survey management, GIS-Analyst
- 2011 Pottery processing of the (Late-)Roman Pottery from the Rescue Excavation in Plovdiv (Bulgaria)
3 weeks, 7 students (Charles University Prague & St. Kliment Ohridski University Sofia)
Position: project management, lecturer
- 2009 / 2010 Survey Methods (Kazanluk, Bulgaria)
3 campaigns, each 6 weeks, 10–20 students (University of New South Wales and Macquarie University, Australia; New Bulgarian University, Sofia)
Position: Project management, lecturer, Co-leadership of the last campaign
